

HALL OF FAME

Criteria for Nomination:

Individual Athletes, Coaches, and Teams

Candidates must have distinguished themselves through outstanding achievement in intercollegiate athletics. Candidates must have graduated from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University five or more years before their nomination or entered professional athletics before graduation.

Similarly, outstanding athletic teams and distinguished members of the coaching staff are also open for nomination and membership. Any coach or administrator must have served the Embry-Riddle Athletics program for a minimum of 10 years.

No automatic criteria will be utilized for nomination, and special recognition may be granted where it is deemed appropriate by the selection committee.

While athletic achievement is of prime importance, character, and good citizenship during both undergraduate and post-graduate years will be taken into consideration. All nominees to the Hall of Fame must have conducted themselves in such a manner as to reflect honor upon Embry-Riddle and have qualities of character and standards of conduct that are exemplary.

The record of the individual or athletic team must be so outstanding that there are no questions of qualifying for the Athletic Hall of Fame. Nominations may be made by anyone, and individuals not selected shall remain on the list for consideration for a three-cycle period. These individuals are eligible for re-nomination. Nominations must be made in writing, including supporting evidence of the nominee's qualifying accomplishments, and be received in the office of the Director of Athletic Communications before (before end of July) Nominations will not be publicly disclosed.

Induction:

The University should induct no less than one and no more than four people bi-annually/per induction class. In selecting those to be inducted, consideration always will be given to representing all varsity sports and all eligible Embry-Riddle student generations. Inductees within the honorary category do not count toward the minimum or maximum number.

Recognition

The Selection Committee for the ERAU Athletic Hall of Fame shall establish nomination and selection schedules, types of awards, presentation procedures, and the permanent display of inducted honorees.

Selected members shall be notified by the chairperson of the Selection Committee for the Athletic Hall of Fame.

Members will be inducted into the Embry-Riddle Athletic Hall of Fame at the bi-annual Hall of Fame ceremony/brunch which occurs bi-annually on a Saturday morning in January in conjunction with a home basketball double header.

Honorary Membership

The Selection Committee may convey honorary membership to those individuals who, by their time, resources, and dedication, have significantly supported, enhanced, and advanced the intercollegiate athletic programs of Embry-Riddle.

Criteria

Individuals recognized may or may not have had any direct affiliation with Embry-Riddle. Their contributions may be varied: faculty athletic advisor, financial supporter of the athletic program, valued employee of the athletic department, volunteer coach, or team physician among others. These contributions should be of a duration of at least 10 years.

Induction

Nominations will be solicited through the same channels as traditional Hall of Fame nominees, and, in addition, strong consideration will be given to nominees submitted by members of the Embry-Riddle Athletics Department. There should be no more than one honorary member per induction class. In some years, there may be no one inducted as an honorary member.
